Description

Fine crystal glassware service by BACCARAT, in the so-called Gondole shape, featuring an elaborate cut decoration and a medallion adorned with a finely engraved monogram, enhanced with gold. The monogram consists of interlaced, foliage-adorned English letters, with a central letter "K" in serrated Neo-Gothic script. It is composed of 12 water glasses; 12 red wine glasses; 12 white wine glasses with pink overlay base; 12 cooked wine glasses; 12 champagne glasses. Referenced in the 1903 BACCARAT catalogue under Forme gondole jambe taillée pied étroit à flammes, taille n° 8354. The engraved monogram corresponds to reference n° 6. described as "like new." A Masterpiece of Luxury Glassmaking This service belonged to BACCARAT's most prestigious collections due to the complexity of its ornamentation. The intricate cuts require multiple wheels of varying angles, including for the stem and foot. The overlay Rhine wine glasses, crafted from colour-layered crystal, are particularly complex and costly to produce. The medallion and the gilded monogram engraving further enhance the refinement of the set. The rarity of this model, its exquisite craftsmanship, and its remarkable condition make this service a truly exceptional ensemble.
