Description

This mid-20th-century French side table or dining table, designed by Adrien Audoux and Frida Minet, dates back to the 1950s. It features a rectangular rattan top with a checked pattern, supported by four bamboo legs adorned with wrapped rattan detailing. The bamboo frame provides strength and stability, while the natural wood grain contributes warmth and character. With its stable and solid structure, this table is perfect for adding a retro and unique touch to your lounge or garden. This piece exemplifies retro design, seamlessly blending functionality with style.
