Biography:

Jacques-Antoine Leclerc (1744-1792):

Master cabinetmaker as of September 29, 1779, he worked on rue du Faubourg Saint-Antoine and later in the cour de la Juiverie, near the Bastille moats.

His creations are stamped "J. A. LECLERC" or "J. A. LECLERE".

He used various precious woods such as rosewood, kingwood, satinwood, mahogany, as well as Coromandel lacquer panels.

His stamp can be found on secretaries, commodes, and various small furniture pieces.

The former Casimir-Périer collection included a pair of Coromandel lacquer commodes bearing his stamp.
