

Double-sided Fan 1850

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ivory

Description

Beautiful fan circa 1850. Ivory mount, paper sheet with a hand-watercolored engraving on each side. The first represents a young man accompanied by three young women drawing water from the fountain. The second represents an allegory to virginity with a cupid playing with two doves in front of young men and women. Two or three small tears at the folds, without seriousness and without losses. 50 x 26 cm
