Description

Pair of ceramic vases resting on a black marble base from Belgium; they have two handles with the characteristic shape of winged caryatids. The vases are partially gilded and glazed in green with Empire-style motifs, such as leafy frets and successive leaf motifs. On the front is a polychrome painted reserve, in which Love and Psyche, Flora, and Zephyrus are represented respectively; on the back, on a green background, is a garland with vine leaves and a mask with female features.
