Description

The Slave Market - Signed J. Muller - Oil Painting on Copper Plate - French School, 19th CenturyA striking orientalist scene, entitled The Slave Market, painted in oil on a copper plate, signed lower right J. Muller Paris. This precious technique, used by some academic artists of the 19th century, gives the work exceptional finesse in detail and a perfectly smooth surface. The composition depicts a slave market in a setting inspired by orientalist fantasies, typical of the Romantic era. The academic style, the refinement of the expressions and the richness of the costumes make this work a remarkable piece. Antique giltwood frame adorned with blue velvet, in keeping with the subject. Condition: Very good overall condition, some superficial micro-cracking due to age. Medium: Oil painting
