Description

We are offering for sale this superb pair of Louis XVI period giltwood armchairs with medallion backs and wide seats. We are selling them in their original condition as we purchased them. They bear the prestigious signature of an 18th century seat carpenter, Delaporte, fluted legs, and are each signed on the inner rear crossbar. The gilding is original to their creation. Of course, given their age and never having been restored, they need to be re-established. These seats are for lovers and collectors of fine 18th century furniture. (E25)
