Description

Very rare model with an unusual decoration and architecture. Entirely in bronze, covered with a beautiful matt and shiny mercury gilding. The sculpture and the chiseling are of excellent quality, precise and very fine. Gilded bronze decoration of a dragon helmet decorated in gilt with a headdress and a mask of Medusa. A small Eros giving the impression of coming out of the helmet, he holds an arrow and a bow. White enamel dial accompanied by beautiful finely chiseled and worked gilded hands. The clock rests on a first base with animated feet chiseled with channels and rocases, in the center of a drapery chiseled with swords. The second base is decorated with friezes of bows, quivers and ribboned arrow, in the center thunderbolt of Zeus centered with a shield and ram's head, on the
