Description

Baluster-shaped vase (upper body with a sharp angle) in polychrome Chinese porcelain, with a rich decoration of numerous figures in war scenes (horsemen with standards, soldiers with lances, a general leading his men, etc.), as well as various objects and flowers in reserves, on a dark green background with a plant motif, signed in a double circle, from the early 20th century. This vase is in good condition and is very decorative due to its original shape. Please note: slight enamel defects, slight wear and tear, see photos.
