Description

This exquisite mid-century piece of furniture embodies the distinctive aesthetic of 1960s Italian design, epitomizing sophistication and style. The sofa set, consisting of two beautifully padded sofas upholstered in high-quality faux leather, boasts a beautiful wood veneer on the wooden base, all supported by elegant chrome-plated metal legs that add a touch of modernity. One of the sofas proudly features the original Saporiti label, a testament to its authentic heritage. Since the 1950s, Saporiti Italia has been renowned for creating some of the most iconic and elegant furniture in the world of Italian design. What sets this sofa set apart is its innovative design; the two-seater sofa includes a unique wooden base that doubles as a practical storage surface or a built-in coffee table, enhancing both functionality
