

Set Of Shaped Earthenware Pieces - Creil Et Montereau, "flora" Model

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Lovely set of three fine earthenware pieces with blue decoration on a white background, from the famous Creil and Montereau factories. The "Flora" model, highly prized for its floral elegance and fine workmanship, perfectly illustrates the French know-how of the late 19th century. This set consists of: - A soup tureen with a lid, mounted on a pedestal, twisted side handles - A fruit bowl or bowl on a foot - A deep dish
Decorated with stylized flowers in cobalt blue monochrome, plant friezes and scalloped border on a white background. Marked on the reverse.
Very good condition, slight signs of use consistent with age. An ideal collector's item for lovers of antique earthenware or for a refined table decoration with a French charm spirit.
