Description

Great Irish Setter Hunting Dog Pointing By Thomas Cartier In Terracotta. Very important terracotta patinated in bronze color Medal supported representing a hunting dog at point probably an Irish setter. Signed Thomas Cartier on the terrace. Work from the very beginning of the 20th century. Thomas Cartier (1879-1943). Born in Marseille and a student of Georges Gardet, Cartier is an animal sculptor rewarded on various occasions, notably at the Paris Salon in 1927, where he won the gold medal. This work represents an Irish setter, on the lookout in its environment. The artist represents with great mastery the smallest details of this great hunter. A superb animal. This sculpture will of course charm hunters and hunting and dog enthusiasts but also lovers of masterfully crafted art objects
