Description

This sumptuous chignon comb is adorned with an Art Deco stylized motif of two opposing fish in undulating lines representing water. It is set in a fine millegrain with a multitude of sparkling rhinestones in an openwork setting riveted to the five-tooth comb in beautiful blond tortoiseshell. On the upper edge: boar's head hallmark. Master's hallmark C-clover-B surmounting 3 five-pointed stars to identify the goldsmith and jeweler CHARLES BEAUFILS, comb manufacturer, active from 1903. Perfect condition, no missing parts, the rhinestones are all sparkling, a true piece of jewelry! Period early 20th century, Art Deco style. Dimensions 10.3cm x 10cm Weight 36g The French magazine "Antiquité Brocante" dedicated an article to hair combs in its December 2025 issue. This comb is featured in it.
