Antique Sarouk Rug - Iran, Circa 1930, Kork Wool

1 950 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wool

Length : 220cm

Width : 140cm

Description

Origin: Iran (Persia)Region: SaroukPeriod: Circa 1930Dimensions: 220 cm x 140 cm (? 7,000 dm²)Material: Kork wool on cotton weft and warpKnots: Fine, hand-knottedDescription: Magnificent antique Sarouk rug dating from the 1930s, illustrating the refinement and precision of traditional Persian weaving. Made from high-quality Kork wool, this rug offers a soft, silky, and durable texture, characteristic of the best productions from the Sarouk region.Colors:Central background: Intense ruby redMedallion and floral details: Cream, ivory, midnight blue, touches of turquoiseInner corners and edges: Celadon blue to turquoise, enriched with stylized floral motifsMain border: Ivory background decorated with fine flowers in red, black, blue, and soft greenFilling and edging:

Dealer

Galerie Buter
Antiquités et tapis rares
Tel : 06 17 57 43 54

85 rue des rosiers Marché Biron stand 124 allée 1
Saint-Ouen 93400

Refined alternation of midnight blue and ivory highlighting the contours of the decorationDesign:The rug features an elegant central floral medallion on a red background, framed by a profusion of symmetrical bouquets in a style typical of Sarouk from the 1920s and 1930s. The turquoise blue spandrels host dense stylized vegetation, highlighted by a richly drawn triple border.Each floral motif, meticulously executed, demonstrates exceptional craftsmanship. Sarouk rugs from this period were particularly sought after in Western markets, as reflected in the fineness of the knotting, the delicate palette and the remarkable level of detail.