Large 19th Century Victorian Period Mahogany Hall Stand With Mirror

3 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 184

Height : 235

Depth : 43

Description

Outstanding Quality Large 19th Century Victorian Mahogany Hall StandAn outstanding 19th-century Victorian period hall stand in solid mahogany with a large arched frame and carved detailing. It features the original marble, 14 original turned mahogany hat and coat supports, 4 brass hooks on the sides, and the original centralized arched mirror. Above is a shaped marble top with a glove drawer beneath, flanked by stick stand areas retaining their original metal drip trays with fret-carved arms and supports for umbrellas and sticks. The hall stand stands on a shaped plinth base with small bun feet. Exquisitely carved, this hall stand is solid and sturdy, yet it has a graceful and delicate look. Dating from around 1860. The inclusion of its original shaped coat supports adds to its

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques
18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art
Tel : 00 44 7595603348
Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square
Petworth GU28 0AH

authenticity. This large hall stand not only serves as a functional piece of furniture but also as a timeless work of art that embodies the elegance and the quality of Victorian antiques. Its combination of quality materials, expert craftsmanship, and rich history makes it a truly remarkable piece for any collector or design enthusiast.