

Two Turquoise Incense Holders Representing Budai - China 18th Century Kangxi Period

1 100 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 7cm

Description

Two turquoise glazed incense-holders figure of Budai. Budai is represented in the same way on both figures, seated and smiling, a necklace in his right hand. China XVIII Kangxi period (1661-1722) Both stand on a carved wooden base. Height (without base) : The smaller: 6.1cm The larger: 6.9cm Height (with base) : Smallest: 7.5cm Tallest: 9cm The smaller one has a few cracks from firing, and a few small chips at the base. The larger, a chip at the base, a chip at the incense-holder. Some scratches. More information and photos on request.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011