

Ingersoll, Truman Ward. Japan Box Set Complete Series Of 100 Stereographs

800 EUR

Signature : INGERSOLL, Truman Ward.

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Truman Ward INGERSOLL (1862-1922). Views of Japan. Complete series of 100 stereographs. TW Ingersoll, 1900100 stereographs, numbered from 601 to 700 mounted on cardboard 9 x 17.5cm Halftone in color photomechanical relief on coated paper, Rare complete series of one hundred numbered views, in their original cardboard case, where are represented castles, temples, gardens, monuments, views of cities, scenes of life and customs, curiosities. Each image has a title and a full description on the back. The University of Chicago Library, which has an extensive collection of "Stereograph Cards," owns this series without a "Card," as does the Library of Congress. Truman Ward Ingersoll, 1862 - 1922, a prominent photographer, is known for the stereographs he published in the United

Dealer

La Valise Arlesienne
Vintage photography
Mobile : 0612584032

8 rue du docteur fanton
Arles 13200

States and elsewhere. In the early 20th century, he also produced halftone lithographic views. His company was called the Ingersoll View Company. Link on our website

<https://www.lavalisearlesienne.com/product-page/ingersoll-truman-ward-japanese-box-complete-set-of-100-stereographs>

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1532548-ingersoll-truman-ward-japan-box-set-complete-series-of-100-stereographs.html>