Description

This rare ring would likely have belonged to a faithful Christian. The tree of life is a fundamental archetype in many of the world's mythological, religious, and philosophical traditions. In the Western European Christian context, the tree of life represents the fullness of eternal life that God wishes to bestow upon humanity. It is one of the most powerful images in the Word of God, spanning from the early chapters of Genesis to the final chapters of Revelation. In Christian art, it is often depicted in illuminated manuscripts, stained glass windows, and frescoes depicting the connection between Jesus and his ancestors. Tree of life jewelry is said to bring good luck and, according to some, divine wisdom. Material: Silver Date: Middle Ages, 13th-14th century Dimensions: 19 x 18
