Description

Charming wrought iron pedestal table circa 1930, Art Dec period. Very beautiful proportions and very easy to place, it is entirely made of wrought iron decorated with interlacing, vine leaves and bunches of grapes. It is topped with its original round and thick white marble veined with beige and gray with two small traces of rust. Beautiful matte black patina of the wrought iron. A charming pedestal table, ideal as a side table or at the end of a sofa or as a small side table. Dimensions: 80 cm high and 40 cm in diameter.
