Description

Adrien Hamon very beautiful oil on canvas the port of Collioure and the tower on rough sea signed lower right and located on the back Delivery 20 euros Born in 1875 in Bégard, he left Bégard at a very young age and studied in Saint-Brieuc and Saint-Malo, where he discovered the rough sea bathing the ramparts of the corsair city. Enlisted in the "Royale", Adrien Hamon traveled around the world, and became a cartographer. Health problems forced him to stay on land and he was discharged. From now on, a passion occupied him, drawing and painting. He exhibited for the first time in Toulon in 1909. As a Breton of good stock, he knew and loved the sea. It was therefore quite naturally his great inspiration. Born inland, Adrien Hamon is the painter of the sea. A solid and precise drawing, a
