Small Tray With Scalloped Edges In Paris Porcelain - Empire Period

690 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 35 cm

Width : 26.2 cm

Description

With a gold background, decorated in its center with a radiant rosette in black monochrome on a white background. Around this central medallion, a wide band decorated with a polychrome floral garland runs all around. It is composed of a garland of flowers, roses, anemones, peonies, pansies, carnations, forget-me-nots, in a bright and delicate palette. On the border, a garland of golden scrolls on a white background underlines the scalloped shape of the tray. Wide gold border. Provenance: Castle of a former Mayor of Chartres under the EMPIRE. Dimension(s): Length. 35 cm - Width. 26.2 cm, Condition: PERFECT CONDITION, Period: EMPIRE. PAYMENT and TRANSPORT PAYMENTS ACCEPTED BANK TRANSFER / PAYPAL / BANK TRANSFER / CB online or by CHECK. PARCELS WILL BE

Dealer

LA METAIRIE
French porcelain of 1700 / 1820
Mobile : 00 33 (0)6 68 23 93 30

Evreux 27730

POSTED WITHIN 4 DAYS. COMBINED SHIPPING AVAILABLE WHEN PURCHASING MULTIPLE ITEMS