Description

This remarkable large decorative canvas (123cmX 91 cm) preferred format for this artist of the American School: AnnTer-Pogossian (1932 -2022) an expressive painting from the "90s": Abstract Contorted Woman, represents a woman sitting in profile in an armchair with her legs folded, head back, face facing forward. A delicately brushed painting in a light, translucent material in the manner of the softness of pastel with dominant tones of mauve gray, blue gray with flashes of white, an expressive and very mastered work for this artist fascinated in her painting by her research into the movements of the body. A work of research accomplished for the harmony of tones and posture ...
