Description

Large oval-shaped table planter in silver-plated bronze, signed Christofle and numbered. A wide band decorated with volutes separated by Acanthus leaves extends around the perimeter of the planter. It is topped by a fluted frieze with ribbons and rests on a frieze of heart-shaped rays. The whole is supported by 4 ornate feet screwed onto the structure. These 4 feet, projecting towards the center of the planter, support a removable zinc tray. Silver plating in perfect condition.
