Description

Louis XVI mahogany chest of drawers from the late 18th century. This chest of drawers has five drawers, three in the upper part and two large drawers below. The fluted uprights are decorated with gilt bronze asparagus tips, a beautiful gilt bronze bead ornamentation that highlights the drawer frames. The four legs end in bronze sabots and the top is made of marble. This piece of furniture has been restored and varnished with a French polish. DIMENSIONS: 1.30m x 0.59m and 0.90m high. Delivery on estimate.
