

Large Pair Mid Century White & Yellow Gold 1 Carat Diamond Earrings Circa 1950's

2 050 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

These exquisite mid-century earrings from the 1950s beautifully blend white and yellow gold in a sophisticated design. Each earring features a single, brilliant cut diamond approximately 0.50 carats in size, giving the pair a total diamond weight of around 1.00 carat. The diamonds are assessed to have a clarity of VS, indicating very slight inclusions that are difficult to see even under magnification, and a color range of H/I, which means they are nearly colorless and will display excellent sparkle. Crafted in a modern style, these earrings possess a unique flair with their fancy stud and scroll design, complemented by secure screw-on fittings. This ensures they stay in place comfortably, making them ideal for both everyday wear and special occasions. Although there are no visible hallmarks

Dealer

Bushells Antiques

Antiques and Jewellery

Mobile : +447956268290

71-75 Shelton Street

Covent Garden WC2H

or stamps, the earrings test as 14-karat gold, confirming their quality. Weighing a total of 8.2 grams, they have a substantial feel without being overly heavy, combining elegance with comfort. These earrings are perfect for those who appreciate mid-century design and the timeless beauty of diamonds. Their unique combination of white and yellow gold enhances the brilliance of the stones, making them a versatile addition to any jewelry collection. Whether given as a gift or worn to elevate your own style, these diamond earrings are sure to be cherished for their beauty and craftsmanship.