Description

This exquisite antique French Art Deco bar brooch from the 1920s is a stunning example of the period's elegance and attention to detail. Crafted from yellow gold, the brooch is designed in a narrow bar style, embodying the sleek and sophisticated aesthetic typical of the Art Deco era. Although it lacks visible hallmarks or stamps, it has been tested and confirmed as 18-karat gold, ensuring its quality and authenticity. The brooch features a combination of rubies and diamonds, artfully set to create a harmonious balance of color and sparkle. The central focus is the series of seven slightly graduating calibre cut rubies, ranging in size from 0.03 carats to 0.15 carats, with a total estimated weight of 0.61 carats. These rubies are complemented by the diamonds, which add an extra touch of brilliance and
