Description

This remarkable large decorative canvas (123 cmX91 cm) in the format of choice for this recognized Artist of the American School: Ann Ter-Pogossian (born in 1932 in Saint-Louis Missouri - died in 2022 in Saint-Louis Missouri), signed with her monogram in red, top right skillfully blended into the decoration near the head, and on one of the reinforcement brackets of the frame with coordinates. This modern painting from the "90s" with frank colors and perfect stylization represents a kneeling woman with her bust forward as if crouching in profile and her head looking at you in the "Abstract Contorted Woman Series". A beautiful large work in shades of blue, gray, green and red in a brushed, translucent and light fluid material representing once again the body of the woman in movement,
