Henri SEIGLE (1907-1995)Rocks in the Rain, 1953Oil on canvas, signed lower rightCountersigned, titled and dated on the back "The brushstroke no longer brings to mind Vuillard at all, it has a regularity, a method, which brings to mind Seurat, it is thick, almost straight lines that intersect, hence this appearance of thick fabric. We can clearly feel that a woman's hand is involved here. It is like stitching with large strands of wool. The object is sewn onto the canvas. It is a canvas on the canvas..."
