Description

STEFANO DALL'ARZERE

(Padua, circa 1520 - 1570)

Saint Jerome Praying, with a Landscape in the Background

Pen and brown ink, heightened with white over black chalk lines

15.5 x 12 cm

Provenance:

Private collection

Probably born around 1505, Stefano dall'Arzere is said to have been a pupil of Titian and to have worked alongside Campagnola. Several of his frescoes remain in Padua, marked by their powerful and expressive figures. His drawings have often been attributed to Campagnola, and a full understanding of his graphic style has yet to be established.
