

Mercy, 17th Century With Its Scabbard

2 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 40 cm

Description

17th Century, large stiletto (40 cm) called "misericorde" in wrought iron and steel. The fully forged fuse has slightly domed sides, olive pommel, guard with two curved quillons, ending in a heart with a width of 9 cm. Quadrangular steel blade. Scabbard in the shape of a tapered horn, ending in a top. The misericorde is a type of dagger, dagger or stiletto used for close combat. Rare with its original scabbard.

Dealer

Collection

Collection

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000