Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Refined table lamp, with a vase-shaped body in gilded bronze, embellished with rich relief decorations. In the centre, an elegant mask of a winged cherub dominates the scene, inserted between refined floral and leaf motifs. The two lateral handles, worked in classic scrolls, give the object a strong decorative character.The square bronze base harmoniously completes the structure, ensuring stability and proportion. The cylindrical lampshade in beige satin fabric, edged with ornamental trimmings with floral motifs, enhances the preciousness of the lower part while maintaining a sober and elegant style.18th century.
