Description

Elegant and majestic, this Boulle technique pedestal skillfully combines metal and wood to create an exceptional piece of furniture. Made of brass and red tortoiseshell panels, it showcases precise and intricate marquetry typical of the Boulle style. The magnificent gilded bronze moldings adorn both the top and base, adding a touch of luxury and sophistication. The lion's paw feet, crafted from high-quality gilded bronze, reflect the attention to detail and the artisanal mastery that went into its creation. This piece is a perfect example of 18th-century decorative art, offering both functionality and refinement. The unconventional dimensions of this pedestal give it a commanding presence, making it an ideal choice for spaces that require a striking and distinguished piece. It will elevate any interior in
