Description

Large and legendary Vérité lamp, an illuminating sculpture from the Art Deco period, in antique cast iron. This is an emblematic model by the sculptor Pierre le Faguays, known as Fayral, for the Max Le Verrier workshops, depicting an Art Deco dancer with a clean line holding a glass globe in her hands. It rests on a marble portor with 3 tiers in white marble. Superb original nuanced green patina. This lamp is electrified and perfectly functional. Signature "Fayral" intaglio on base and stamp of founder Le Verrier. Very good condition, with an excellent patina, note some chips on base Height:28,3" Width: 8,9"
