

A Sterling Silver Victorian 1891 B/ham Henry Tatton & Son Engraved Trophy Cup

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

This Victorian trophy cup, made by Henry Tatton & Son in Birmingham in 1891, is a beautiful and historical piece. Crafted from sterling silver, the cup highlights the quality and artistry of its time. Victorian 1891 Birmingham Henry Tatton & Son Trophy Cup Engraved With: RIC Sport 1894 Presented By Sir Andrew Reed Inspector General R.I.C. To Thomas Argue Dimensions: 18.8 x 9.5 cm Weight: 240g This inscription shows that the trophy was awarded in 1894 during a sporting event organized by the Royal Irish Constabulary (RIC). It was presented by Sir Andrew Reed to Thomas Argue, adding a personal and historical touch. The trophy is 18.8 cm tall and 9.5 cm wide, weighing 240 grams. It features elegant Victorian design elements typical of the craftsmanship of Henry

Dealer

Bushells Antiques

Antiques and Jewellery

Mobile : +447956268290

71-75 Shelton Street

Covent Garden WC2H

Tatton & Son. This trophy is not only a decorative piece but also a valuable historical artifact. It offers a glimpse into the social and ceremonial practices of the late 19th century. Whether part of a collection or displayed on its own, this cup is admired for its beauty and historical significance.