Description

This large 19th-century sterling silver bowl is a beautiful example of the intricate design and craftsmanship characteristic of that era. The bowl showcases exquisite repoussé work, featuring detailed floral and bird motifs, which add depth and texture to its surface. This technique involves hammering the silver from the reverse side to create a raised design, demonstrating the skill and artistry of the silversmith. The bowl also features scrolled head detail handles, which not only add an elegant touch but also enhance its functionality, making it easy to carry and display. These ornate handles complement the intricate repoussé decoration, contributing to the overall aesthetic appeal of the piece. With dimensions of 23 cm in diameter and 13 cm in height, the bowl is substantial enough to serve as a striking
