Description

Rare Secret Box Simulating a Louis XVI Chest of Drawers, Late 18th Century "Rare secret box simulating a Louis XVI chest of drawers. This box dating from the end of the 18th century, beginning of the 19th century is very original and unusual. It resembles a miniature chest of drawers like the masterpieces of companion or this type of reduction but by its proportions it is indeed a box opening on half of the body. Mounted on oak, it is veneered with flamed mahogany leaves, decorated with lemon tree fillets forming a geometric decoration on the four faces of simulated drawers as well as on the rear uprights and the front uprights. The keyholes are in mother-of-pearl and the pull knobs in bronze. Like some Louis XVI chests of drawers, we find on this box a projection front, as well as another projection on the rear uprights. The Louis XVI feet end with bronze knobs. A clever secret system formed by a sliding trapdoor on the The facade allows the keyhole to be cleared and thus forms a hiding place for the key. A remarkable piece of cabinetmaking work given the small scale. Carried out in the 18th century, it has suffered little damage and therefore has few restorations, finished with French polish. A beautiful and very original box. Dimensions: 30 cm long by 20.5 cm deep and 26 cm high. We deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for a precise quote.
