Description
-------------

This Japanese cloisonné enamel "Shippo" jewelry or trinket box is a beautiful piece that highlights traditional Japanese artistry. Cloisonné is a technique where metal wires form compartments filled with colorful enamel, creating intricate patterns. The box features a vibrant floral design, making it not just a functional item but also a piece of art. It measures 13.8 cm long, 10 cm wide, and 3.6 cm high, providing ample space for storing jewelry or small items. Weighing 585 grams, it feels solid and well-made. This box is ideal for anyone who loves Japanese art or cloisonné craftsmanship. It would look lovely on a vanity or dresser and makes a practical and decorative addition to any home.
