

Hercules In Bronze, Italy, Early 17th Century, After Nicolò Roccatagliata

6 500 EUR

Signature : Entourage de Nicolò Roccatagliata

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Bronze statuette representing Hercules, after a model by Nicolò Roccatagliata. Venice, early 17th century. Height of the bronze: 26.5 cm Total height: 41.5 cm In good condition, without restoration or accident, very beautiful patina. Mounted on a 19th century marble base, some chips on the lower edges. Several versions of this Hercules are kept in museums (La Spezia, Metropolitan Museum of Art...), the most beautiful known example is undoubtedly the one kept in the collections of the KMH:
<https://www.khm.at/kunstwerke/statuette-kleinbronze-herkules-herakles-91731>

Dealer

Spinario

Sculptures and Works of Art from Renaissance to Eighteenth-century.

Mobile : 06 20 57 63 51

Paris 75001