Description

Pair of Restauration Period Gilt Bronze
Candlesticks Mounted as Lamps circa 1820

This beautiful and decorative pair of candlesticks in finely chiseled and mercury-gilded bronze stands out for its elegance. These candlesticks feature a lovely decor of palmettes, vine tendrils, bells, and flowers, showcasing remarkable craftsmanship.

A fine example of French Restauration period work, circa 1820-1830, these candlesticks perfectly illustrate the style and quality of this era. Their refined design and meticulous details make them ideal pieces to enhance any elegant interior.

In excellent condition, these candlesticks retain their beautiful period gilding with some minor wear that adds to their authentic charm. They have been converted into lamps and are adorned with beautiful new pale yellow silk shades with gold interiors. We note a slight dent on the shaft of one of the candlesticks.

Electrification complies with European standards, with the possibility of adaptation to American standards.

To personalize your lamps, we can create custom pleated silk shades tailored to your taste and interior design upon request.
