Description

Jacquot Pitcher from the East, early 19th Century
Jacquot Pitcher from the East: Islettes, St Clément, Lunéville? Represents a gendarme in uniform with a "bicorne" and epaulettes. He classically holds a bottle and a glass. Sponge enamel for part (base and sleeve cuffs). It is original in its shape, completely different from what is usually found! The factory remains to be defined. In relatively good condition. No cracks, no repairs. Note some enamel chips (see multiple photos).
