Description

This exquisite coffee table is a superb example of 1970s Italian craftsmanship, embodying the elegance and sophistication characteristic of Louis XV style furniture. Its intricately carved gilt bronze base features delicate curls and scrolls that beautifully complement the slender, wavy legs, demonstrating meticulous attention to detail without overpowering the overall design. The rectangular onyx top, in a sophisticated cream shade, adds a touch of luxury and harmonizes perfectly with the gilt bronze base. Its size makes it versatile for placement in the living room, either in front of a sofa or off to the side, enhancing the space with its timeless charm. Despite some minor signs of age, including light wear to the onyx surface and a beautiful patina that has developed on the bronze,
