Louis XV Style Chinese Lacquer Furniture

7 500 EUR

Signature : Rosel à Paris

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 112

Height : 84

Description

Lovely 2-door lacquer cabinet with landscapes and still life scenes in the Far Eastern style; chinoiserie or japonism, a very popular style in France and Belgium in the late 19th - early 20th century; very good quality bronze ornaments in the rocaille style. The interior is in mahogany with a folding door divided by horizontal and vertical shelves intended for documents. The top is in Portor marble. The back is stamped by the Maître-Ebeniste Rosel ; a high-end furniture maker active in Brussels , in a fluid French style (op.cit.: Christopher Payne: European Furniture of the 19th Century). Height 84 centimetresWidth 112 cm Depth 48 cm

Dealer

Serge Daelmans Antiques Fine Art

Antique dealer wholesale since 1963

Tel : +32-475/250735

Rijksweg 255

Dilsen-Stokkem 3650