Société nationale des Beaux-Arts in 1932 and a member in 1933. He received the Henri Gsell and Isidore Paquin prizes. This sculptor is responsible for numerous sculptures, often in wood, but also produced in bronze or terracotta. The representation of African figures figures prominently. Very few works are dated, and often without trace of the founder. He died in Paris, aged 85, on April 14, 1990. Paris Manaus Gallery
