Description

Refined Piedmontese mirror in finely carved and silvered limewood, dating from around 1780, in elegant Louis XVI style. Its graceful frame is adorned with a rich leaf-scroll motif, culminating in an intricate crest, lending movement and decorative depth to the piece. A rare feature is its double tier of mirrors, framing the central mercury glass with light and elegance. Size: 164 x 84 cm. It retains its original wooden back and has undergone minor restorations, discreetly and expertly done. The silvering, naturally worn by time, lends an authentic patina that enhances its antique charm. Feel free to contact us for more information.
