Arab Knife Called Khadaam - Yemen, Mid 20th Century

330 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Arabic Knife Called Khadaam - Yemen, Mid 20th CenturyThis type of dagger is called khadaam in Arabic. It means "servant". It was worn in pair with the jambiya and had a utilitarian function. Curved blade with a single convex edge. Handle covered with silver sheet worked in repoussé and decorated with spikes and filigree. Without scabbard. Weight 232gr Length 31cm Blade length 15cm

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu
Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120