Description

PROUDHON (Pierre-Joseph) - Complete Works. The Social Revolution Demonstrated by the Coup d'état of December 2. Project for a Permanent Exhibition. Paris, Marcel Rivière, 1936; in-8, 386 pp., paperback. New edition with notes and unpublished documents under the direction of Messrs. C. Bouglé & H. Moysset. Pierre-Joseph Proudhon, born in 1809 in Besançon and died in 1865 in Paris (16th arrondissement), was a French polemicist, journalist, economist, philosopher, politician, and sociologist. A precursor of anarchism, he was the only revolutionary theorist of the 19th century to come from a working-class background. Introduction and notes by Édouard Dolleans and Georges Duveau.
