Description

Superb Art Deco ceiling light chandelier in glass and patinated silver metal from the 1920s 1930s. It has 3 geometric-shaped frosted glass globes made by Jean Gauthier EJG (Établissement Jean Gauthier). Very crisply moulded in thick glass, elegant design. Not signed. The mount is decorated with roses, three branches and a central column. We believe it to have been made by Francis Hubens, sometimes Gauthier's partner. The wiring has been replaced at some stage. Height 65cm Width 53cm Weighs over 5kg
