Description

Superb oval mirror from the Napoleon III period, gilded with gold leaf. This magnificent oval mirror, typical of the elegance of the Second Empire, is distinguished by its finely sculpted frame gilded with gold leaf, offering a warm and authentic patina. At its top sit two small birds delicately posed face to face, symbolizing grace and harmony, bringing a poetic touch to the whole. Refined work from the 19th century, this mirror reflects all the know-how of the artisans of the Napoleon III period, with balanced lines and subtle ornaments. It will fit perfectly into a classic interior or will enhance a more contemporary decoration by adding charm and character. Rare and decorative piece, ideal for lovers of antique objects imbued with history and finesse.
