

Rare Tournai Porcelain Plate 18th Century

950 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Soft porcelain plate from the service of Bishop Wavrans with a contoured edge decorated in blue and gold monochrome with flowers in the center and on the rim with garlands of flowers held by knotted ribbons. 18th century. D. 24 cm This plate is part of the service of Monseigneur Félix de Wavrans, Bishop of Ypres from 1762 to 1784. Several pieces are kept at the Royal Museums of Brussels, in Mariemont as well as in Paris at the Museum of Decorative Arts. The service was sold in 1880 by Charles Hynderick, great nephew of the bishop. Two plates and a galcière are reproduced by Thomas Bayet, Claire Dumortier and Patrick Habets, Porcelaine de Tournai, Chine et Chinoiserie, 2009, p. 44 and 45 An identical plate was sold at Me Peschereau on March 23, 2017 for 1600 euros including fees <https://www.proantic.com/en/1535580-rare-tournai-porcelain-plate-18th-century.html>

Dealer

Accents Baroques

Jean François MARTIN - Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 0675245191

Mobile : 06 75 24 51 91

9 route de Clermont

Brignac 34800