Description

This is a piece of furniture that is quite exceptional in its elegance due to the quality of its workmanship, the materials used, and its harmonious shapes. It is a chest of drawers made of thuya burl resting on olive feet and topped with a magnificent yellow Pyrenees marble. It opens with two doors and three drawers. It is all curves and the doors are decorated with four mother-of-pearl inlays. This piece of furniture from the 1930s is in a truly excellent condition with a very beautiful french polish.
